

I would like to register my comments that I am opposed to further deregulation of media company ownership. Companies already have the ability to control major portion of individual markets. Any expansion of the ability of one company to own multiple media outlets in a single market will have detrimental effects to news journalism, and available entertainment.

Thank you for your time.